BY: _____	DEPUTY _____

1 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

3 Case No.: 3:23-cv-00035-MMD-CSD

4 DAVE CLEMENS,

5 Plaintiff,

6 v.

7 NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS, et al.,

8 Defendants.

ORDER SETTING MANDATORY
TELEPHONIC CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

10 The court has now screened Plaintiff's complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a) and

11 ordered the case to proceed. In order to ensure the just, speedy, and cost-effective resolution of

12 this action, the court orders the parties to attend a mandatory telephonic case management

13 conference as described more fully below. No discovery may proceed until the court enters a full

14 scheduling order.

15 I. Mandatory Telephonic Case Management Conference

16 A mandatory telephonic case management conference will be held on THURSDAY,

17 SEPTEMBER 28, 2023, at 10:00 A.M. To join the conference, each party is directed to call the

18 toll-free telephone number 1-888-557-8511; Access Code: 3599743; Security Code: 92823,

19 approximately five (5) minutes prior to the hearing. Defense counsel shall make the necessary

20 arrangements for the Plaintiff's telephonic appearance at this conference and shall provide the

21 Courtroom Deputy, Karen Walker, at karen.Walker@nvd.uscourts.gov with the telephone

22 number at which the plaintiff can be reached for this mandatory telephonic case management

23 conference. The parties should be available for one-half hour, although the case management conference will likely take less time.

II. Case Management Report

In advance of the mandatory case management conference, each party shall file a case management report no later than THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2023.

The case management report must not exceed 5 pages and must not include any attached exhibits. Each party's case management report must include the following information in separately numbered paragraphs as designated below:

1) A brief statement of the nature of the case, including a brief description of the claims and defenses;

2) The location of potentially relevant documents;

3) The discovery each party intends to take, if any;

4) Any options or methods for the streamlining and/or bifurcation of discovery or the litigation;

5) Whether the defense of failure to exhaust administrative remedies may apply to any claim(s) and whether that defense, if successful, would be dispositive of the entire case or certain claims in the litigation. If a defense of failure to exhaust administrative remedies will be raised, address whether any discovery needs to be conducted as to that defense only, and if so, what discovery is required, and provide an estimate of how long the parties need to complete this discovery;

6) Whether the party intends to use expert witnesses;

7) Whether the party intends to proceed by consent before the magistrate judge.

Presently, when a civil trial is set before the district judges, any criminal trial set that conflicts with the civil trial will take priority, even if the civil trial was set first. Continuances of civil trials under these circumstances may no longer be entertained, absent good cause, but the civil

1 trial may instead trail from day to day or week to week until the completion of either the criminal
2 case or an older civil case. The parties are advised that they are free to withhold consent or 3 decline magistrate jurisdiction without adverse substantive consequences; and

4 8) Any immediate or ongoing issues or requests that require the court's immediate
5 attention or that should be brought to the court's attention.

6 III. Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order

7 Following the case management conference, the court will issue a discovery plan and 8 scheduling order (DPSO). Once issued, the dates in the DPSO are firm and no extension will be 9 given without permission from the court based on a showing of good cause.

10 IT IS SO ORDERED.
